Does that sound daunting? Well, it's going to be on your fingers! This game requires tactical keyboard skills for well-honed gamer and bionic man power. You must play before the clock by pressing the necessary keys to create your power ((B) and (N) keys on your computer keyboard). Are you the strongest man on Earth? Well, we'll find out soon! Six of the world's strongest men are competing for the final title. You are one of them! You need to successfully complete 6 events to win the exclusive title of The Strongest Man in the World. There are two game modes to choose from (Freeplay - where you can start any task and challenge where you go through all 6 tasks to compete with others). You are provided with instructions at the beginning of each level explaining how to perform each task. At the first level, for example, (weightlifting) you have to choose your lever weights (from 200 to 1000 lbs), and then quickly press (B) and (N) KEYS to try to lift. You only have three attempts and 20 unbearable seconds to lift it. Other levels include car lifting, tossing a barrel, pulling a monster truck, a one tone balance test and a Hercules Hold. Use all your strength and do not give in to pain. Remember that the mind always gives against the body! You can do it ironman! How to play: Follow the instructions at the beginning of each level. All levels include fast hitting (B) and (N) keys on your computer keyboard in order to create the power to perform the challenge. You can see how much power you create in the power bar in the lower left corner of the game screen. For Keg Toss, you need to use your SPACEBAR to throw it. Pump those fingers!
